

CHARLES WESLEY GIBBINGS was born on a farm at Rosetown. He graduated from the College of Agriculture, University of Saskatchewan in 1942, following which he farmed for several years and instructed part-time in the School of Agriculture and a youth training program in the province. In 1946 he was elected a delegate of Saskatchewan Wheat Pool and rose to become the President of that organization in 1960. Mr. Gibbings was appointed a Commissioner of the Canadian Wheat Board in 1969. Over the years he has been an active supporter of the Saskatchewan Agricultural Graduates Association as a member of the executive, the association's representative to the Advisory Committee of the College of Agriculture, and as the holder of a life membership in our association. In addition he has held a number of very significant positions related to the University of Saskatchewan, including membership on the Senate and national chairman of the University's development fund.
