

Norman White

April 26, 1942 - November 29, 2006

WHITE -Norman William passed away early in the morning of November 29, 2006, surrounded by his family. Norm was born on April 26, 1942, in Yorkton, Saskatchewan, the only child of parents Bill and Nell White. The family lived for a time in Fort Qu'Appelle, and then moved to Stalwart where his father ran a general store. In 1954, they moved to a farm in the Melfort area, where Norm attended Melfort View school and then Melfort Collegiate Institute high school, graduating in 1959. Norman took his B.SA at the University of Saskatchewan, graduating in 1963, after which he worked as a traveler for Massey-Fergusson until 1964. He then went to work for his Uncle Herb building and installing docks and marine railways on the lakes around Fort Qu'Appelle. Norm decided to go back to school for his B.Ed, which he received in 1968. After graduating, he moved back to Melfort, where he taught high school from 1968 until he retired in June of 1998. While at University for his first degree, Norman met Beatrice Neufeld, and they were married in 1964. Their first child, Matthew, was born in 1970, followed by Megan in 1973. Norman was predeceased by his parents Bill and Nell. Left to cherish his memory are his wife Bea; his son Matt; his daughter Megan (Brad) Hunt and their children Madison and Alex. Funeral Service will be held on Monday, December 4 at 2:00 p.m. at Melfort United Church. Any memorial donations may be made to the Melfort Wildlife Federation (Box 146, Melfort, SK S0E 1A0) or the Canadian Cancer Society (Box 2078, Melfort, SK, S0E 1A0). Funeral arrangements are entrusted to MELFORT FUNERAL HOME.
