

David PILLIPOW

PILLIPOW, David William
1959-2019

It is with immense grief that we announce the passing of David Pillipow. He was born in Regina, Saskatchewan on December 19, 1959 to William and Sonia Pillipow.

David completed primary and secondary school in Wynyard; he graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology, and a two-year diploma in agriculture. He would go on to become a successful entrepreneur, engaging in real-estate-related ventures, PBR Auctions, a second used car dealership and a pawn shop. He was also actively engaged in family-related entrepreneurship opportunities, as well as the Liberal Party in Saskatchewan. His interests were as diverse as his talents and intellectual abilities, spanning into construction, mechanics, plumbing, electrical, aviation, hunting, fishing, gardening and more. He was a renaissance man, a truly diverse person and a bright light. Later in life, David loved going up north to his cabin, hunting for a "good deal" and dragging said deal home, and spending time with his friends and family. He had immense pride in his heritage and his family, enjoying the Ukrainian traditions he was raised with.

David leaves behind many of his family members: his wife Margaret Pillipow, daughter Anna Pillipow and his mother Sonia Pillipow. He also leaves behind his siblings: sisters Odarka (Allan) Cruickshank, Lesia (David) Ostertag and his brother Stephen (Shelly) Pillipow. He will be greatly missed by his nieces and nephews, Mark (Lisa), Jamie (Lee), Evan (Erika), Alexandra (Ian), Daniel, Nicole and Erin. He was predeceased by his father, William Pillipow. The family would like to thank Reverend Father Demczuk for presiding over the funeral service, and Greg Lalach at Park Funeral Chapel. We would also like to thank the staff in the palliative care unit at St. Paul's hospital for their professionalism and compassion during a difficult period in our lives, as well as the out-patient palliative care nurses. Donations can be made to Close to Home St Paul's Campaign.

The Funeral Service will be held on Tuesday, November 19, 2019 at 10:00 a.m. from Park Funeral Home, 311-3rd. Ave. North, Saskatoon. Interment will take place in Woodlawn Orthodox Cemetery.

To share condolences and memories, visit www.parkfuneral.ca "Obituaries-Guestbook". Park Funeral Home, 306-244-2103.