The meeting was called to order at 5:50 pm at Great West Brewery Hospitality Room. Minutes of the Dec 4, meeting were corrected to read all "graduating members of SVAA and ASA are invited to the social evening Thurs Jan 7, 1999 at 7:00 pm". Burwell - Fulton the minutes be adopted as corrected. CD Items for the ANNUAL MEETING agenda to include:

- Update of the Barn Raisers Fund - Rod Delahey
- Update report on the Diploma Review - Graham Jones
- Membership Fee Levels and their effect on numbers of members

Financial Report - cash in the bank is low but investments are still in excess of $ 81,000.00.

Turley - Lammerding the treasurers report be adopted . CD
ASA rep - Jennifer Laing reported there is considerable interest in SAGA and ASA will probably be entering two hockey teams. The Executives of the student associations are invited to the annual meeting to participate in the discussion of membership fee levels.

Reunion - Ewald reported approximately 300 from the reunion years have indicated they will be attending. He is arranging a display of memorabilia from 1939.

Mixer - Blair Cummins reported in Bev Rosher's absence. Bev and Ken Sappsford will organize a work committee for the evening. A table "charging admission and selling memberships" will be at the door. A different table selling banquet tickets will be else where.

Banquet - Cory reported in the absence of both reps. The hotel has put the price of the meal up to over $23.00 and are charging 12% gratuities. The banquet is thus not expected to break even but will hopefully be close. Pres. Ivany who has been invited will be unable to attend but there will probably be a vice-pres. in attendance. Dean Stewart will be attending. The honorary recipients have confirmed attendance.

Curling - 32 rinks are entered, 22 regular and 10 Hutcheon event. Draws will all be at the Granite and Hub City rinks.

Hockey - Bill Hill unable too attend sent report that there are 7 teams entered and possibly the College will enter another to bring it to 8.

Delahey - Brack that SAGA accept sponsorships of $100 - $150 for the hockey tournament and provide recognition in the form of signs at the rinks and a report in the SAGA news-letter. CD Jack Braidek reports that SAGA now has an e-mail address "thesaga@home.com" and evaluations of establishing a web site are taking place.

Rod Delahey moved the meeting be adjourned. Blair braved the outdoor temperature and barbecued kabobs donated by Saskatoon Specialty Meats. Approximately 50 students attended the social gathering.
